

The WHPS Weekly

Friday 29th April 2022

Dear Parents/Carers,

What a busy week it's been again at West Hampstead School. On top of the busy lesson schedule, we were also able to welcome the school Governors into classes and share the children's wonderful learning. It was a fantastic day and the children really enjoyed sharing their experiences with all those that came to visit.

On Thursday, the PSA hosted a successful movie night that was really well attended. The children were very excited and we would like to thank all those involved for their efforts to host such a lovely event.

As you all know, this weekend is a Bank Holiday weekend and so we will be closed on Monday. It is also likely to be a special day for our Muslim community who will be celebrating EID. On behalf of the school, EID MUBARAK! We hope you enjoy the time with your loved ones.

Have a great weekend and see you all on Tuesday.

The Nursery have started a new story called The Very Hungry Caterpillar by Eric Carle.

Caitlin, Iona and her family spent the weekend making the most amazing model of the life cycle of the butterfly.

Caitlin said "It took a long time to dry and I love the bee on the flower".

Caitlin shared her model with Mr Drake and her friends in the Nursery and was able to tell them all about it.

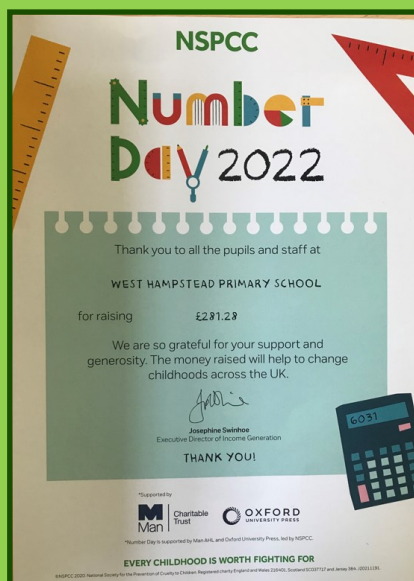

The Reception classes were so busy last week. They made a wonderful collaborative Jungle collage in the style of Henr Rousseau .

Why not pop along and have a look under the shed in the infant playground to see.

Ms Shafer

Huge thank you to everyone who took part in number day last term!

Together, we raised £281.28!

WHPS hosted a wonderful event last week bringing together around 80 teachers from all five boroughs of our Maths Hub. Teachers were sharing best practice and insights into maths learning. Miss Efford, Miss Hardcastle and Miss Woodfield drew in the crowds with their innovative and effective teaching ideas. Follow the hub on Twitter @MathshubLdnCNW

We encourage you all to come along to discuss:

- use of class reps

and much more.....

Light refreshments will be provided.

Look forward to seeing you there.
